

Social Supermarkets and Grub Hubs

What is a Social Supermarket?

Social Supermarkets, also known as Grub Hubs offer discounted food parcels, typically about £20 worth of food for a cost of a £4 membership per week. You do not need a foodbank voucher to access them but they may have some criteria to ensure they are helping those who need it most.

What is a foodbank?

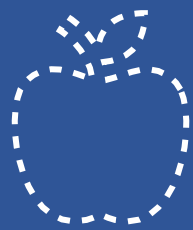

Trussell Trust Coventry Foodbank offer support to local people in crisis. You must have a valid foodbank voucher in order to use this service.

How do I access a voucher?

You can contact Coventry Foodbank directly using the link here or call 024 7699 3770.

You can also contact your local advice agency. Advice agencies in Coventry who can issue Foodbank vouchers include Coventry Independent Advice Service and Coventry Citizens' Advice. You can also contact a Family Hub.

You will be told the location of your nearest foodbank when issued a voucher, most foodbank centres currently operate on a collection only model. For more information on foodbanks please visit <https://coventry.foodbank.org.uk>
